

Common Mosquito Breeding Environments Around the Home/Camp

Artificial Environments	Yes	No	N/A	Comments
Are gutters clean
Is the bird bath emptied and scrubbed weekly
Are tires properly stored
Are corrugated pipes graded to drain
Are children's toys and pools scrubbed & emptied weekly
Is swimming pool operating, properly covered, or treated with a larvicide (including skimmer)
Are potted plants properly maintained/not overly saturated
Are potted plant dishes emptied and scrubbed weekly
Are tarps properly used/stored to not hold water
Are pet water bowls emptied and scrubbed weekly
Are recycling bins and garbage cans covered or have unblocked drain holes
Are wheelbarrows turned over
Are watering cans stored to not collect rainwater
Are rain barrels tightly covered or have screening small enough to exclude mosquitoes
Are buckets stored inverted or covered
Is septic tank in good repair (no cracks, vent pipes covered with mesh)
Does storm shelter have tight-fitting door
Is air conditioner drainage area properly graded
Is area free of other items that can hold water (cans, bottles, bottle caps, etc.)
Are window and porch screens in good repair
Natural Environments
Is vegetation maintained to not attract/breed adult mosquitoes
Is bamboo present
Are treeholes visible
Does the yard properly drain after a rain event
Is there a ditch that requires maintenance (stagnant water or overgrown vegetation)
Is fish pond/fountain circulating water

Recommendations: